Every year Not-For-Profit organizations receive millions of dollars from both the government and the private sector to carry out vital areas of hands on service to their community. Many grants are available to churches, community, and faith-based organizations, as well as community groups. To tap into these available resources, it is necessary to understand how the system works, how to prepare a grant that will actually get results, and how to find the sources of this income. This practical, easy to understand, one day seminar is designed to give you all the tools necessary to find and receive funding to help you fulfill your dreams.
